

Castleford Vacancy: Ski Department Technician and ski hardware sales

We are looking for a hardworking, enthusiastic individual who has a real passion for Skiing, along with the latest technologies and trends in the Ski industry.

As a Ski Technician you will play an integral part in the future success of the store, and you must demonstrate superior customer service.

The ideal candidate will have comprehensive knowledge of ski brands and products; however, the latest product training and customer service excellence training will be provided.

In-store department merchandising will be an important part of the job, you must be able to bring a mix of creative vision and commercial understanding to your work whilst ensuring company guidelines are adhered to.

Excellent communication skills are necessary, as you will be working with the Department Manager to maximise sales and productivity within the department.

You should be experienced and confident when dealing with customers, self-motivated and punctual with a proven sales track record. Additionally, you must be enthusiastic, flexible, proactive, be able to work well under pressure and work to deadlines.

An extension of the role will be to assist the sales floor team in recovering the shop floor displays and merchandising along with undertaking general housekeeping duties such as cleaning.
